Do, do, do, do, I do, do, do, do
I do, do, do, do, I do, do, do, do, I do

Demons try to bring me down
They don't know that I'm over you
Visions seek me out at night
They don't know that I'm over you

Over you, over you
Getting over you, over you
That's what I do

Hopes and ideas still lingering here
They don't know that I'm over you
That tingling down my spine whenever you would come around
Don't know that I'm over you

See anyone can tell just by looking at me
Everything's getting better
I'm getting there slowly by bits and degrees
Everything's getting better, better

Over you, over you
I'm getting over you, over you
That's what I do

Do, do, do, do, I do, do, do, do
I do, do, do, do, I do, do, do, do, I do

I tell the butterflies up in here for no apparent reason that
That I'm getting over you
I tell my way my heart prepare for yet another season
'Cause I'm getting over you

Tell the mourners in black get out of my room
And don't come back 'cause I'm getting over you
And that sad eyed hound follow me all over town
But I'm getting over

See anyone can tell just by looking at me

My wounds are getting better
As I sit here I learn more about me
My life is getting better, better

Over you, over you
Getting over you, over you

Over you, over you
Getting over you, over you
That's what I do, that's what I do
That's what I do

Do, do, do, do, I do, do, do, do
I do, do, do, do, I do, do, do, do, I do
That's what I do, that's what I do

Birds in the sky you know how I feel
Over you
That's what I do
