Nail your spine into my back
You are in me
I'm your breathing as you crack
Into that sad and scary smile
So this is what it feels like... this is what it feels like

I'm the one that sucks you dry Drowning in you
I am every tear you cry
I am someone else tonight
And this is what it feels like...
this is what it feels like

I take you down, I give you back
Softly, slowly
I leave you breathing as you crack
Into that sad and scary smile
Knowing what it feels like...
this is what it feels like
