As we do our thing,
Try to keep control.
Careful what we sing.
Rock and Roll is everything to everybody that you've ever met.
Dirty socks and all!

If I ever make it to the top I really hope I don't forget,
No one cares how tall I feel!

If I ever wri-i-i-ite any songs about being a rock star,
Slap me please, alri-i-i-ght.
That ain't me.

I've got more to say,
I'm sticking to my guns.
Let the big boys play.
They're the ones who wanted to become the very image they create.
Now that's all they are!

They're the ones with nothing,
but a lifestyle to which no one can create.
But they play guitar!
Don't you see how damn cool they are?

Oh No! They take it too far.
Now all the greatest love songs, are secretly about heroin.

If I ever wri-i-i-ite any songs about being a rock star
Slap me please, alri-i-i-ght.
That ain't me.
