I can only love you so much
but you use it, if you lose it would you ever feel ashamed?

And I will only tell you one more time
then you know that I'm never gonna tell you again.

How can I believe of what you say to me when I know you lie and I know that I can't do enough to please.

I know that you don't care
and baby it's not fair, that I can't rig you
'cause not the matter I do, seems to get me anywhere.

CHORUS:

I can only love you so much
but you use it, if you lose it
would you ever feel ashamed?

I will only tell you one more time
then you know that I'm never gonna tell you again.

[MUSICAL BRIDGE]

You used to be so kind to me at first but then you changed and rearranged and let me fall apart.
Then you're not good for me
but babe if I leave
there's a piece of me gonna stay with you so what am I supposed to do?

CHORUS:

I can only love you so much
but you use it, if you lose it
would you ever feel ashamed?

And I will only tell you one more time
then you know that I'm never gonna tell you again.

[MUSICAL BRIDGE]

As I can only love you so much
but you use it, if you lose it
would you ever feel ashamed?

And I will only tell you one more time
then you know that I'm never gonna tell you again.
