Got me watching your eyes
Watching things go by outside
Out the window of a train

Easy sipping them
Just seeing it fly left to right
Pour the milk and I'll say when

I'm out wandering around
You're but one thing I've found
I don't mean to bring you down
I'm out wandering around

Kinda hoped you wouldn't blame me
I can't wake up
Everyday and find the same me

You can scream but I'll just dream
How you might disappear
All I know is it's never clear

I can't hold you near
You just are not here
Though it wasn't hard or far
I walked you to your car
