its about life life life life life life life

its about fun fun fun fun fun fun fun

i hate you, i love you
i just can't remember to forget you who are you,
who needs you, you make me feel alive
i die, so high, i'm crawlin on the ground and i found i can fly

one of these days it all comes together
one of those days it goes forever
think i sound crazy maybe what ever whats it all about

Its about life
its about fun
its over before it has begun
its about you
its about me
its about everything between
and i say
i say goodbye to you
i say hi to you
with no clue
its about time that i
make up my mind

its simple, confusing
the truth is i'm winning but i'm losing and pulling and pushing won't do me any good it could, it should i'm honest to myself that the truth is i've lied

one of those days that goes forever

its about you

Time, its creeping behind me surrounding around me
fading the words so desperately
that i can believe in time is something you can't rewind

with no clue

its about life

say goodbye to you i say hi to you with no clue
