I know you're shy
I know you like to get high
I know you probably wouldn't never talk to me
If you didn't have a buzz, if you didn't have a buzz
At least you have something to talk about

I try to not be awkward
I know you just want to drink
It's hard to stay sober when you don't look at me

I try to not be awkward
I know you just want to drink
It's hard to stay sober when you don't look at me

Am I optimistic, or just naive?
All my friends say it's bravery
I'd rather be slapped than pitied, I'd rather be slapped than pitied
At least I have something to talk about

I try to not be awkward
I know you just want to drink
It's hard to stay sober when you don't look at me

I try to not be awkward
I know you just want to drink
It's hard to stay sober when you don't look at me

Yeah I've got choices
Better make the right choices
T-chart all my choices
At least I still have choices

I try to not be awkward
I know you just want to drink
It's hard to stay sober when you don't look at me

I try to not be awkward
I know you just want to drink
It's hard to stay sober when you don't look at me
