"Keep Quiet"

It's the silence that keeps me quiet
That I think that if we talk, we might kiss
I really think if we talk, I really think if we talk
We might kiss.
You always looked so shy, and I always lacked in confidence
I won't have to compose another list
Of all the things I wish I did I've grown tired of all this sleep
And every hours we've been wasting
You always looked so shy, and I always lacked in
confidence
Your sheets were, were made for, were made for a ghost like me
It's the silence that keeps me quiet
That I think that if we talk, we might kiss
ghost like me
