"Hey, Matt", "Yeah, Tim?"

"Hey, you talked to Mark lately?"

"Uh, haven't really talked to him but he looks pretty, uh, down"

"He looks pretty, uh, down?"

"Yeah, well maybe we should cheer him up then"

"What do you, uh, suppose we should do?"

"Well, does he like butter tarts?"

I was lying on the grass
On Sunday morning of last week
Indulging in my self-defeat
My mind was thugged, all laced and bugged
All twisted wrong and beat
A comfortable in three feet deep

Now the fuzzy stare from not being there
On a confusing morning week
Impaired my tribal lunar speak
And of course you can't become if you only say
What you would have done
So I missed a million miles of fun

I know it's up for me
If you steal my sunshine
Making sure I'm not in too deep
If you steal my sunshine
Keeping versed and on my feet
If you steal my sunshine

"Chad, come here come here, come here"

"Wow, look at her", "I know"

"Wow, I've never seen Sharon look so bad before"

"I did once before but this is pretty bad"

"Yeah, what do you think she got up to last night?"

"Well, I, Karen, I love you"

I was lying on the bench slide
In the park across the street
L A T E R that week

My sticky paws were in to making straws
Out of big fat slurpy treats
An incredible eight foot heap

Now the funny glare to pay a gleaming tare
In a staring under heat
Involved an under usual feat
And I'm not only among
But I invite who I want to come
So I missed a million miles of fun

I know it's up for me
If you steal my sunshine
Making sure I'm not in too deep
If you steal my sunshine
Keeping versed and on my feet
If you steal my sunshine

I know it's done for me
If you steal my sunshine
Not as some and hard to see
If you steal my sunshine
Keeping dumb and built to beat
If you steal my sunshine

My sunshine, if you steal my sunshine
My sunshine, if you steal my sunshine
My sunshine, if you steal my sunshine
