Maybe you and I
Maybe you, maybe another
Could be something that you're thinking about
Maybe you're gonna try

Maybe you can be a winner
Maybe you can be an astronaut
Maybe you're gonna cry
For a long forgotten lover

Maybe I think you'd better stop
Maybe you decide
That you're gonna tell your mother
If you have a lot of tears to drop

I cannot wait any longer
The time is right to hit the road
And I wonder would you follow me
Maybe you're gonna dance with me

Maybe yes or maybe not, maybe
But actually it doesn't really matter a lot
Sorry, don't remember, oops, I forgot
Maybe you don't lie

And whatever you deliver
Is just turn your inside out
Well, I can't rely
Couldn't say it any clearer

Could you tell me, no, I doubt
Maybe you gotta try
Could be chocolate or banana
Doesn't matter but I guess you won't

Maybe you deny
That we compliment each other
Maybe I do maybe you don't

I cannot wait any longer
The time is right to hit the road
And I wonder would you follow me

Maybe you're gonna dance with me
Maybe yes or maybe not, maybe
But actually it doesn't really matter a lot
Maybe, you take a chance with me

Maybe yes or maybe not, maybe
But actually it doesn't really matter a lot
Sorry, don't remember, oops, I forgot

If you ask me I don't know
All the chances that we blow
I guess you know
What I am dreaming of
All I want is just to be in love

I cannot wait any longer
The time is right to hit the road
And I wonder would you follow me

Maybe you're gonna dance with me
Maybe yes or maybe not, maybe
But actually it doesn't really matter a lot

Maybe you take a chance with me
Maybe yes or maybe not, maybe
But actually it doesn't really matter a lot
Sorry, don't remember, oops, I forgot
Sorry, don't remember, oops, I forgot
Sorry, don't remember, oops, I forgot
