Have you ever felt misunderstood
Like no one gets you That's how I feel everyday Seeing all the things going on around me
People say that I have changed
But I know that I'm still the same
Don't try to be a little "Miss Perfection" 'cause nobody's perfect Don't wanna hear these misconceptions
It's just not worth it
When you feel you're pulled in the mean directions
You might just lose your step and fall

Not who you think I am at all
at all at all
at all at all
I'm not who you think I am at all
at all at all
at all at all
I'm not who you think I am at all

Did you ever think that you know it all In the morning papers Show how the world beats today
Seeing everything going on around me
People say that I have changed
But I know that I'm still the same
Don't try to be a little "Miss Perfection" 'cause nobody's perfect
Don't wanna hear all the misconceptions
It's just not worth it
When you feel you're pulled in the mean directions
You might just lose your step and fall

Not who you think I am at all
at all at all
at all at all

I'm not who you think I am at all
at all at all
at all at all
I'm not who you think I am at all

Don't try to be a little "Miss Perfection" 'cause nobody's perfect
Don't wanna hear all the misconceptions
It's just not worth it
When you feel you're pulled in the mean directions
You might just lose your step and fall

Not who you think I am at all
at all at all
at all at all
I'm not who you think I am at all
at all at all
at all at all
I'm not who you think I am at all
