It's always the same
A window I can't see through Don't think I'll ever do

It's covered in rain
Like me as I'm waiting for you I'm not sure I wanted to Like horses on a carousel never win but always keep racing

Standing here got time to kill, watching them a little oh
They don't know

All that I want is always to push forward
But since you've been gone
I just wanna push rewind
If yesterday could only be tomorrow
Whatever I do I always run behind

It's always the same
I'm staring at the ceiling
Don't know where to begin

All that I see
Just symbols with no meaning
They could mean anything

Like echoes in a hallway my thoughts are always reflecting Bouncing off the walls of our cold and empty house and I still Don't know

All that I want is always to push forward
But since you've been gone
I just wanna push rewind
If yesterday could only be tomorrow
Whatever I do I always run behind

If you could see how my world is tumbling down Oh how it hurts when you're not around

All that I want is always to push forward

All that I want is always to
push forward
But since you've been gone
I just wanna push rewind
If yesterday could only be tomorrow
Whatever I do I always run behind
Whatever I do I always run behind
