You don't know, if you could see how much I love you
How much better the world gets when you are here
I am true, I'm serious about my love, boy
It's real, boy, don't forget that, boy

It feels like my world gets better when you're with me
Cause your soul is so stunningly beautiful
You know that part of me is always yours, love
For life, love, don't forget that, love

(Oh oh) I would grab some stars for you
(Oh oh) But I know I'm not allowed to
(Oh oh) I would take a plane and fly straight to the moon
(Oh oh) And then steal the stars and come back to you

So I would colour my hair pink, blue and green, boy
For you boy, and I cook the whole day, hope you're satisfied
I'd love to show today how much I love you
Tomorrow I love you more though

(Oh oh) I would grab some stars for you
(Oh oh) But I know I'm not allowed to
(Oh oh) I would take a plane and fly straight to the moon
(Oh oh) And then steal the stars and come back to you

I know that you feel the same for me as I do
Pretty sure that I know what I'm talkin' about

(Oh oh) I would grab some stars for you
(Oh oh) But I know I'm not allowed to
(Oh oh) I would take a plane and fly straight to the moon
(Oh oh) And then steal the stars and come back to you

(Oh oh) I would take a plane and fly straight to the moon
(Oh oh) And then steal the stars and come back to you
I steal the stars and come back to you
