"my best friend can do anything it's true

my best friend will sing everything to you
cause she can, she can...

she pours her thoughts into a bowl Â of soup

she'll spill it over an empty bowl for you

cause she can, she can
she can...

a twin sun rises, out today she says come into a zoo cage well, there's donkeys, elephants, and chimpanzees made out of styrofoam to help you feel alone

but its just not the real thing its just not the real thing she says my best friend changes all the time that's her and she can, she can
she can... "
