Well there was a time
That time when you were mine
It was fun but they all said
Too young too young?
& I was alone
Don't sit right for the phone
You didn't call
Your dissed
I didn't wait for you

You didn't see us together
But I saw forever

And now
What your doing to find me
I know Your tryin to remind me
How low
I'll feel without you but from the get go
I'm doing it to
I'm doing it to you
I'm doing it to you
I'm doing it to you

Now I'm on the line
Connected to your crime in the sun
I heard she is a big fan, good tan
And you made me feel
I never knew the deal
You told me from day one that I was
Too young, too young

Ooh it's your duty duty
To shake that booty booty
Small fat or round or juicy
(You are what they desire)

Ooh it's your duty duty
To shake that booty booty
So what you waiting for
(You are what they desire)

Shake it shake it shake it shake it

Shake it shake it shake it shake it
Shake it shake it shake it shake it
Shake it shake it shake it shake it
(You are what they desire)

Ooh don't be shy
Feed your appetite
You go the rocket fuel
Ignition ready

Ooh ooh
So fire it up
Don't hide it hype it up
They're watching us so what
Don't you know that?

Some people are born too shut up
And sit behind the desk
(Listen up)

Some people are born to be safe and cannot take a risk
(That's right)

Handcuff up your boss yeah be rough
He might like it like it
(Come on)

He'll get a rise you'll get a raise
Don't tell his wife about it

Ooh it's your duty duty
To shake that booty booty
Small fat or round or juicy
(You are what they desire)

Oooh it's your duty duty
To shake that booty booty
So what you waiting for
(You are what they desire)

Ooh it's your duty duty
To shake that booty booty
Small fat or round or juicy
(You are what they desire)

Oooh it's your duty duty
To shake that booty booty
So what you waiting for
(You are what they desire)
