Stupid loser!
You don't know shame no
you've got no manners I hate your endless efforts and your pathetic outcries for attention you'll do everything you can to get your five minutes of fame everywhere You've got no respect for the artist on stage

During a moment of complete silence you start screaming at the top of your lungs, don't you get enough attention at home or are you just so full of yourself?
You scream and wave, you jump and laugh

You're begging us to look at you
You want to be the centre of attention
