Are you that blind to think that we do not see the mask you wear can't hide your hypocrisy behind your friendly toothpaste smiles

You try to be some really important man, but everyone sees you're no upper class you're behaving too much like a peasant but you think that you're a real success

A harassing toady is what you are, spreading many lies but your pride and stupidity tell yourself you're popular

You're just a stupid yokel but you try to act like some bourgeois just leave me alone and go fuck yourself 'coz in my eyes you're just an empty frame

Pride shall be your downfall pride will bring you to your knees

Your fashion fake personality is just a trend of society you don't possess any own thoughts just keep on following the crowd

Why don't you shut the fuck up, take your backstabbing to the grave consciously you're suffering from delusions of grandeur
