You're throwing shit at me but you don't know who I am I'm just an easy target 'coz I'm a shy loner you know I'm not self-confident, I'm so afraid to fail and I just don't have the guts to say "fuck you" to your face

You're making fun of me 'coz I'm not like you you're degrading me for all that I stand for your insults just prove your fucking ignorance but still they make me wanna forget about this shit called life

It's all fucked up now because of you how can humanity be so fucking stupid?
There's so many shit going on in this world you've no respect for each other, you're destroying your own kind

There's nothing I can do but look and stand back I have to undergo all your humiliations I can only hope for myself that it will stop I can't take this shit under control

You criticize my way of life you're kicking me down to the ground I even start to hate myself to all of you I can only say: fuck off 'coz I hate you all!

Why can't you just leave me alone you've hurt me so deep inside now the shit you've done I can not forget you don't know how much I hate you!

I've put up with too much of your shit it's driving me insane you say that I'm a loser but you will all regret
'coz in the end you will loose
