What a vicious lucrative masquerade serving up compliments and bullshit, an idolated friend-foe policy honesty is a burden in this scenery
Whatever happened to be yourself?
Whatever happened to "speak your mind"?
Whatever happened to "spit your piece"?
When did music turn into politics?
A two-faced bitch - standing on the side feeding & breeding on a pool of lies, a fashion victim begging for a chance
The time has come to end the scenery, the time has come to end the politics, drop the antics and get up to date
Competitive bullshit: scene scenery
What's the point of being two-faced?
What's the point of fake compliments?
Where did criticism get traded for cocksucking & a bribe?
Your existence is a waste of breath and time
Scene scenery, the time has come to end the scenery
Competitive bullshit: scene scenery
