One day he woke up, still drunk from the day before headache and hangover, bottles up, the best way to fight it Cleared up he's ready to go out in search of drinks and drugs

Finished his first six pack before it'd 10am drinking to forget what he already forgot watching perverted porn, he feels so alone he gets really horny, yes lust is coming up Pussy is what he needs, a cheap fuck is what he craves

Blurred out by all the drugs everything gets fuzzy and confused he's no longer in control wrecking himself more everyday

'Coz you were successfull in life you became a bigheaded dick adopting an arrogant lifestyle addicted to all sort of drugs
He had to be treated like he was a king beating up his wife, abused all his friends Drugged up he's freaking out, fed up they left him behind
