"Still From Da Hood"

I'm still Kissaak from da same neighbourhood If you want to be big and famous that ain't my business, it ain't my problem but if you have 5 villas and 30 cars you shouldn't be talking about how poor you used to be Boasting with your pool table and your swimming pool you have gold hanging everywhere and a rolex around each wrist

He's still Svencho, always lived on da street You ask millions to sign contract you're just thinking about yourself gain too much money for one lifetime so you can buy a tv for each room

He's still Glenne who came right from da block He's still Nico, grew up in the ghetto

You shouldn't be whining about how still you care about how you used to be a kid from the street and how you still know where you came from and how you'll help with your success but you do nothing
He's still QW, he knows where he came from
