You blow away your stupid head while reenacting a crime
you light up a match to see in a room filled with gas you wonder how it would feel to set yourself aflame you can shoot an arrow in your own vital organs you touch an electric wire without wearing any gloves you jump off a cliff without realizing it

You are too stupid to live!

Do you have a chromosome 21 too much?
How could anyone be so fucking stupid like you?
Don't you see you're not above the laws of physics of this world?
You are doing such stupid things that you just deserve to die!

Too stupid to live!

You manage to get run over by your own fuckin' car you try to change the light without switching off the electricity you're run through with knives because your trick didn't work you die in your car driving in the wrong direction you cross the railroad but the train is coming at full speed you're teasing an elephant until he steps on you you get crushed by a tree you've just sawn off you kill yourself while playing something you saw on tv

You are just too fuckin' stupid for this life we are glad you removed yourself from our gene pool
