You are wrapped in a cocoon
While I'm blowing kisses at the moon
All of the secrets that you hold
Will disappear in one rainy afternoon

Don't be foolish
Don't be foolish
Don't be foolish
I will find a way to you

I will peel away
Peel away the layers that you build up around you
I don't feel the way
I'm supposed to feel when you push me away the way
you do

I will tunnel straight for your heart
And I will blow this whole thing apart
Don't be foolish
I will find a way to you

You are hidden in your shell,
While I'm throwing coins at the wishing well
If you think you'll get away with this
Just look into my eyes and see that I am serious

No, don't be foolish
I will find a way to you

I will peel away
Peel away the layers that you build up around you
I don't feel the way
I'm supposed to feel when you push me away the way
you do

Oh I will tunnel straight for your heart
And I will blow this whole thing apart
Don't be foolish
I will find a way to you

It isn't easy excavating every day

But I will find a way to you
You have your reasons to be hiding away
But I have my reasons too

I will peel away
Peel away the layers that you build up around you
I don't feel the way
I'm supposed to feel when you push me away the way
you do

Oh I will tunnel straight for your heart
And I will blow this whole thing so far apart
Don't be foolish
I will find a way to you

You are wrapped in a cocoon
While I'm blowing kisses at the moon
