So tired of feeling blue.
such a heavy weight on you.
So shake it off and make your way
to somewhere different x2.
Oh no now you're leaving me
oh what will you do all alone
in the big bad world?
Im not worried, no.

Chorus:
Cause you're gonna skip along,
Quite merrily, baby.
you're gonna revel in hating
what's goin' on
And you're like a sugar bomb
and no harm will come,
no harm will come if you

just skip along.

Acting oblivious.
Comes natural to us.
Keep smiling knowing all the while
the world will fall apart x2.

ah, ah

Chorus

Wouldn't it be lovely to be home, home
safe and sound with no one round
to bring us down
but that's so far away.

Chorus x2

la ti da

No harm will come if we just skip along.
