It's hard to find a girl
I'm looking around the world
My heart is ready
But not a lot of could
I'm touching a lot of wood
Got caught up in this game
I stay the same
But it's true
It's all misunderstood
It's maybe because
My future is blinded
Or I try to find and sign it
I feel that mom designed it
And mom and dad decide it
But you got to learn
Just like a kid
Just taking the chances like I did
I'm always open, smart
Ready to take the next step
Plus I'm all set but now
My feelings are all dead
I lost hope, like all the time
From 1 to 59
Connecting with my mind
And now my pen is falling
I'm stalling
Designing love is calling
I'm not going to lie I'm sorry
To be in different places
Looking for love
And catching cases
Just me and you exchanging faces
2 fast amazing races
Don't want to be making it
Disses all I see
There's fishes in the sea

Chorus (2x):

It's hard to find a girl
I searched around the world
Mexico, tokyo, monaco and so so
I don't know where I'll go

But never on the low though
It's hard to find a man
Looked everywhere I can
New york, montreal
Germany and russia
Thought you were the one
But then I went and lost ya

Took a big chance
Tried to find romance
Sticking out my neck
But it's just a disconnect
I'ma keep trying to find
Not the cheating, lying kind
With the could-a, should-a
Would-as, I've had enough cuz
I need someone
Who will finally understand
Just exactly
What they've got at hand
A real live girl
That ain't afraid
To take a stand
And love her man

Let's dedicate to all of ya
The ones that didn't work
The ones that made me hurt
And straight up made me squirt
I want to let you know
That I really wanted us
To be together
I'm feeling better
You girls can't understand it
It's like I'm underhanded
Be capable of sharing and caring
And I will give up click clack
Six packs and all that
And I forgot about the sex
Got to say that
It's one of the best
You'll ever test

(Chorus)
