Have you seen the woman sitting outside the shops on Clarke Street?
All day long she sits there even in the midday heat
Can you spare some change, her life to rearrange She's been down here for so long yet she's managed to stay strong

Chorus

It's a crying shame We're having to play the begging game (repeat)

Tell me sir do you believe in justice for all Yes I know you do 'cause when the rain is falling
As you sit there big bout ya in your Lexus Spare a thought for the rest of us oh Mr. Big Boss

Chorus

Technological advancement, yet it's still a mystery
How some people still live in misery
The next millennium approaches yet she still fights off the 'roaches Spare a thought for those who live in fear stalkers marching up the rear

Chorus

The young man of colour believed in life everlasting Even while on his body they were brutally beating, pain inflicting
Lost souls retreating to an uncertain future Son you better call on your God if it's saving that you're looking for

Chorus
