Is there anyone out there
Willing to try
Or are we satisfied with Just getting by?

We've hurt Mother Nature
Can't you see her she's crying
We've robbed and we've raped her
And taken her child

And, oh, can we find a reason?
Just think about it
And, oh, can we find a reason
To live another season, yeah

We're fighting more battles
Everyday we're alive
We should be rejoicing
But instead we cry

This world's so polluted
You would think we were blind
We poison our children
Before they're defined

And oh, can we find a reason
Just think about it
And oh, can we find a reason
To live another season, yeah

Excuse me for saying
'Cause I've never been shy
But if we don't stop this
We sho 'nuff gon' die

Yes, I hope we can make it
'Cause this river's run dry
Now our only battle
Will be to survive, hey

And oh, can we find a reason
Come on and think about it

Hey, and oh, can we find a reason
To live another season

Yeah, it's the new millennium
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Can we find a reason
To live another season?

And oh, can we find a reason
To live another season?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
can we find a reason
To live another season?

It's the new millennium
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Can we find a reason
To live another season?

Hey, hey, hey
