Woke up this morning feeling thankful and grateful So I got a little something I want to say you know like a little prayer thank you
Thank you god that I am able Got my shelter and food on the table got my health don't need no pride
'cause everything I need you gave me inside life aint ever been better then it is now I aint lonely
I'm by myself cause when you got the Lord you got all the wealth check me out I am sailing it's my time and there's no way I am failing
life ain't ever been better then it is now I know the world is really crazy but that's the time we got to stop being lazy we got to stand stand up for what's write we got to separate the darkness from the light
I've seen the world

I've seen it all we're headed for the wall and we're gonna fall like the days way back in Rome we're stepping right inside of the danger zone but life aint ever been better then it is now
life aint ever been better then it is now You see people come and people go and people always get just what they sow and I believe in this thing called love and our ability to rise above
life aint ever been better then it is now
life aint ever been better then it is now
life aint ever been better
Oh alright now its warfare out there

So we got to suit up and put our armor headed for the frontline its gonna be alright its gonna be alright just stay thankful and grateful doing it like james brown
