Last night I realized there's no point in compromise
I guess it's time we said it's over
'cause I been watchin' you
Searchin' for somethin' new
You'll find it now 'cause it's all over
What's the sense in bitterness?
It only leads to emptiness
I thought that we'd find happiness

But we've run out of track and we won't get it back
'cause it's over, it's all over, it's all over, it's all over

I remember when you said to me
Take care when you share your love
Before you give it all so easily
Be sure that you can give enough
Look what happened there

Over, it's all over, it's all over, it's all over
We've run out of track and we won't get back
'cause it's over
It's all over, it's all over, it's all over
It's over, it's all over, it's all over, it's over
Over, it's all over, it's all over, it's over
