Writers: Leo Sayer & Alan Tarney

Restless as the ocean -- stumbling in the dark
Blinded by emotion -- wishing on a star
Yeah I was yours from the start
And no stranger could tear us apart
Let me in to your heart tonight

When I'm beside you I see the child
In you tonight
I see a wild youth inside of you
Burning so bright

Let my love create the spark
Split the ocean wide apart
Agents of the heart be kind tonight

Yeah I was yours from the start
And no stranger could tear us apart
Agents of the heart please be kind to me tonight

When I'm beside you I see the child
In you tonight
I see a wild youth inside of you
Burning so bright

Let the lightning break the dark
Let your love create the spark
Agents of the heart be kind tonight
