Rely on me
Devil take tomorrow
Take these blues away
Too much pain and sorrow
All our yesterdays

There's a world a waiting
Where you reap just what you sow
No good contemplating
So come with me and watch it grow

Rely on me
Rely on me
Rely on me
I will set you free
I'll break down the walls and set you free

Moon is bright in my sky
Nightingale sings sweet sweet
You're the song in my heart
Put your faith in me
Let's not cool the spirit
Waste each other's time
It's my world I want you in it
Trust in me and what we're sure to find

Rely on me
Rely on me
Rely on me
I will set you free
I'll break down the walls and set you free

Rely on me
Rely on me
Rely on me
I will set you free
I'll break down the walls and set you free
