(R. Cooke/ B. Wood)

Your love still brings me to my knees
From day to day you feel my needs
This flame that burns
Within my heart will never die
Oh I bless the day you come along
You turned my life into a song
There is no greater love
And there will never be
'Cos you're the only one
(Your love still brings me to my knees)
Brings me to my knees
(Your love has given me)
Your love still brings me to my knees
(Your love has given me)
I find each day I love you more
Always the one I'm waiting for
No matter where I go
No matter what I do
'Cos you're the only one
(Your love still brings me to my knees)
Still brings me to my knees
(Your love has given me)
You bring me to my knees
(Your love has given me)
Now I never knew
What life was all about, yeah
Then you came along
And gave me a reason to understand what it's about,
oh darling

[Solo]

Your love still brings me to my knees
From day to day you feel my needs
There is no greater love
And there will never be
'Cos you're the only one
(Your love still brings me to my knees)
It brings me to my knees
(Your love has given me)

Still brings me to my knees
(Your love still brings me to my knees)
You've given me everything
Given me everything, darling
