What's wrong with this picture
Ooh.

Your every action, means something new to me
Instant attraction, but I'm not your enemy
Come out of your shell I want to know
Everything that you know

What's your name? what's your number
I don't know, you don't care
Such a shame, when the real world
Isn't everything it seems
What's wrong with this picture?
Ooh.
What's wrong with this picture?

I may be foolish but I want your innocence
Give me a reason, show me the evidence
I want to know you
I want to know everything about you

What's your name? what's your number
I don't know, you don't care
Such a shame, when the real world
Isn't everything it seems
What's wrong with this picture?
Ooh.
What's wrong with this picture?

It doesn't seem right
You tell me one thing and I see another
What does it take to make you a friend
Or make you a lover?

What's your name? what's your number
I don't know, you don't care
Such a shame, when the real world
Isn't everything it seems
What's wrong with this picture?
Ooh.
What's wrong with this picture?
