You've been sad you've been hiding so long don't be scared just you keep holding on I've been there

Locked myself away cant bare to face another day your broken and ashamed but if you search within yourself you can

[Chorus]
Learn to love you and you learn to heal the pain let strength hold you let it shelter you from rain those shadows cast away your pride find the light that shines inside of you

So alone its so cold where you are close your eyes let the peace warm your heart free your spirit chase away your fears and wipe away the lonely tears feel your courage near let it reach into your soul and then

[Chorus]

[Bridge]
I know your hurting your walls are caving in but in time you can make it I know your troubles your worlds diminishing but just listen to the voice within and

[ChorusX2]

Learn to love you
of you..
