Let's just get married, raise our own family
Everyone's so unhappy
Follow a heart that's asked from the start to bleed

I cannot wait for, I will not wait forever
It's such a drag, nobody knows me better
I'm heavy like Sunday, I wanna be your reason why
I'm heavy like Sunday, I wanna be your reason why

Let's leave those dark days behind Mistakes are made but our decisions change our design
The damage is nearly said and done
So let's take the money yeah, let's take the money and run

I cannot wait for, I will not wait forever
It's such a drag, nobody knows me better
I'm heavy like Sunday, I wanna be your reason why
I'm heavy like Sunday, I wanna be your alibi

And friends make better lovers 'cause they look you in the eye
And they'll put you in the middle of a thousand whys

I cannot wait for, I will not wait forever
It's such a drag, nobody knows me better
I'm heavy like Sunday, I wanna be your reason why
I'm heavy like Sunday, I wanna be your alibi

I cannot wait for, I will not wait forever
It's such a drag, nobody knows me better
I'm heavy like Sunday, I wanna be your reason why
I'm heavy like Sunday, I wanna be your alibi

I cannot wait for, I will not wait forever
