I just remembered something that I forgot to do
The bedroom door needs painting and the walls are fading to Angie's bike needs fixing that all takes time you see
And I know I'm not fooling you
Goodbye comes hard for me

So I'll just check for things once more and look in every room
I must have dropped my comb somewhere
And a man must stay well-groomed
Its seems I have a right to stay
But I know you don't agree
Well its goodbye to all our love
Goodbye comes hard for me

Goodbye comes hard for me
And I hope you'd grab my sleeve
I thought that you might change your mind
And ask me not to leave
My face is wet I've cried I guess
I love you now you're free
Well its goodbye to all our love
Goodbye comes hard for me

My face is wet I've cried I guess
I love you now you're free
Well its goodbye to all our love
Goodbye comes hard for me
