I caught the darkness baby,
Drinking from your cup,
I caught the darkness baby,
from your little ruby cup.
I said is this contagious?
You said just drink it up

Ive got no future,
I know my days are few
The presents not that pleasant just a lot of things to do I thought the past would last me but the darkness got there too

I should have seen it coming it was right behind your eyes you were young and it was summer ahhh-I had to take a dive yeah winning you was easy but the darkness was the prize

I dont use no cigarette and I cant taste the alcohol I aint had much loving yet ah but thats always been your call ever since the darkness doesnt make much sense to me at all

I used to love the rainbow
And I used to love the view I loved the early morning and I pretended it was new but I caught the darkness baby and I got it worse than you caught the darkness

drinking from your cup
I caught the darkness
drinking from your cup
I said is this contagious?
you said just drink it up
