I watched you change, and never knew I trusted you, and fell apart again That you would be, Like all the rest You were so true, too good to be true So depressed, I'm your slave I cannot change the fact, that you're not coming back Betrayed me You're not the one, to be trusted with my love You're not the one, who should be trusted with my love Betrayed me I hate to fight, that's not what I want I had to leave, so I could breathe You were so true, too good to be true I trusted you, and fell apart again So depressed, I'm your slave I cannot change the fact, that you're not coming back Betrayed me You're not the one, who should be trusted with my love You're not the one, to be trusted with my love Betrayed me ::I know:: I cannot change the fact, that you're not coming back So depressed, I'm your slave Betrayed me Betrayed me You're not the one, to be trusted with my love You're not the one, who should be trusted with my love I cannot change the fact, that you're not coming back So depressed, I'm your slave
