"Blame Me"

I'm always gunna be one life behind
It's why I'm all alone
What's it gunna take to make you see
That we are falling apart?
I wondered can we throw away the past
So we can stop the screaming match?
I'm not gunna break down anymore
I've found my way to the door

I can see through both of us
It's an issue of our trust
It's killing me
It's killing me to watch you leave me
::Leave me::
::Leave me::

I tried to talk about what's really wrong
I see that look of discontent
The volume starts to rise and then it's on
That's why I have to go
Dealing with the pain is all that's left
Because we cannot get along
You want to put the blame on me again
I think that we have reached the end

I can see through both of us
It's an issue of our trust
It's killing me
It's killing me to watch you leave
I can see through both of us
It's an issue of our trust
You keep blaming me
Blaming me for what you do to me

It's your turn to
Watch me leave you
It's your turn to
Watch me leave you
It's your turn to
Watch me leave you

I can see through both of us
It's an issue of our trust
It's killing me
It's killing me to watch you leave
I can see through both of us
It's an issue of our trust
You keep blaming me
Blaming me for what you do to me
