Are you looking down on me right now? Watching you get ill, it changed our lives I feel your presence beam down Your hand went limp and we cried I didn't realize you had to go I wish I had the chance to tell you I'm so sorry Emotionless overflow Do you hear me praying to you? I'm thinking of you I'm thinking of you Do you hear me praying to you? I know that you are in a better place Somewhere that you can escape I'm looking for a sign from up above That you still care and have love I was really young and didn't know The pain took over your soul I wish I had the chance to tell you, I'm so sorry Do you hear me praying to you? I'm thinking of you Do you hear me praying to you? I'm thinking of you Work harder For nothing I'm sorry To find you Work harder For nothing at all You're nowhere To find you Do you hear me praying to you? Do you hear me praying to you? I'm thinking of you I'm thinking of you Do you hear me praying to you? Do you hear me praying to you? I'm thinking of you I'm thinking of you
