Take up all my life inside
Why would i let them make up my mind
And be mislead
Give up what they taught us now
Rest the past forever gone in time
Lets find the way
This pain inside i can't understand
This hate inside that will not go away
Go ahead make up your mind
I have had enough of who they want
Leave me alone
Realize that i lost control
Impulses keep flashing through my head
Its on the outside
I have reazlied that inside to let go of all of the bullshit everyone around keeps giving me advice and i just know that everyone is full of shit, i take it day by day and i can't understand, can't understand
This pain inside i can't understand
This hate inside that will not go away
This pain inside i can't understand
This hate inside that will not go away
Its always killing me
The problems i face daily
Its always facing ??
Always saving face
Make up all my life inside
Why would i let them make up my mind
And be mislead
Go ahead make up your mind
I have had enough of who they want
I'm on the outside
This pain inside i can't understand
This hate inside that will not go away
This pain inside that i can't understand
This hate inside that will not go away
Its always killing me
Problems i face daily
