Walter: [Spoken]

There has been a sensational development in the very first fame of the World Chess Championship here is the snow-covered Tyrolean town of Merano, Italy.

The board and pieces have been thrown to the ground in disgust by one or the other or both of the players. The world champion Freddie Trumper has stormed out in a rage. It looks personal.

Trumper has demanded that Sergievsky apologize for making him walk out. Unless someone bangs their heads together, the championship could be abandoned after just one game.

Walter de Courcy for Global Television.
