Such a cad am I
So mean am I
Baby can't you see it's because you don't love me?

All the boys in town know that I've been fooling around
Chasing every skirt
Sorry if your feelings got hurt
You see, such a cad am I
So mean am I
Baby can't you see it's because you don't love me?

Every girl I've kissed, I've been checking off on my list
Never kiss them twice
That's yours truly's latest advice
You see, such a cad am I
So mean am I
Baby can't you see it's because you don't love me?

Even my best pal saw me walking away with his gal
When I turned her loose there were two more singing the blues
You see, such a cad am I
So mean am I
Baby can't you see it's because you don't love me?

But if you would say that you'd really love me one day
I'd forget those chicks 'cause I did it only for kicks
You see, so in love am I
So lost am I
'Cause you know it's true no-one else matters but you
So in love am I
So lost am I
So in love am I
So lost am I
So in love am I
