Pick a name, pick a place, chances are I've had the means to be there.

Pick a date, pick a time, I got it from a friend of mine,
the ability to Socialize.

Holy Mackerel

Once when I was young, I troubled over imperfection in my knees.

When you cultivate a pompadour It's best to keep the top up for the Breeze.

Cuts like hell, ya know.

Sporty was a poetry boy, and liked to puff his pipe into the night.

But since he sold him hits of ecstasy.

Johnny Law, he took a decade of his life, that's a hunk of life.
