Everybody knows this song
But why did it take so long yeah
Now your children they are grown
Wearing make up and alone
Workings tired out your eyes
Yea drinking milk shakes eating fries
Grease your hair down
Polish up your shoes
Get up girlfriend take her to the zoo
Check your balance pay checks coming through
Something's going wrong my friend it's you
Days are turning into years
What a wonderful career
Now your children they are grown
And your wife is all alone
It's time to find out where you're at
We don't want no heart attack
Grease your hair down
Polish up your shoes
Get up girlfriend take her to the zoo
Check your balance pay checks coming through

Something's going wrong my friend it's you
