Thenardier

What to do? What to say?

Shall you carry our treasure away?

What a gem! What a pearl!

Beyond rubies is our little girl!

How can we speak of debt?

Let's not haggle for darling Cosette!

Dear Fantine, gone to rest

Have we done for her child what is best?

Shared our bread, shared each bone

Treated her like she's one of our own!

Like our own, Monsieur!

Valjean

Your feelings do you credit, sir

And I will ease the parting blow

[He pays them.]

Let us not talk of bargains or bones or greed

Now, may I say, we are agreed?

Mme. Thenardier

That would quite fit the bill

If she hadn't so often been ill

Little dear, cost us dear

Medicines are expensive, M'sieur

Not that we begrudged a sou

It's no more than we Christians must do!

M. and Mme. Thenardier

One thing more, one small doubt

There are treacherous people about

No offense, please reflect

Your intentions may not be... correct?

Valjean

No more words, here's your price.

Fifteen hundred for your sacrifice

Come, Cosette, say goodbye,

Let us seek out some friendlier sky.

Thank you both for Cosette

It won't take you too long to forget.

[Valjean and Cosette leave the inn.]

Come, Cosette, come, my dear

From now on I will always be here

Where I go, you will be.

Cosette
Will there be children
And castles to see?
Valjean
Yes, Cosette,
Yes, it's true
There's a castle just waiting for you...
