"When We Are Divided"

if we're too far apart then can we ever find a way to bridge the divide to try and change my heart no you will never if you want me to alter my side we must have things we see eye to eye on please if we can agree just one time, it'll be easy

see one side who's right who may be wrong it's not so easy if only things where black and white if we begin with things we can agree everything's else we can decide

is separation in fashion again? we could work together
if it's all the same i'd rather be alone and use my own name
is separation in fashion again?
