Hey! I guess what you're thinking,
And things you say about me;
When you know I can't hear, in your
Private meetings, when it all comes clear,
That no-one's missing me
Hey! What d'you try to achieve,
When you're all smiling at me?
But in the way you move, and the
Things you say, I can see clearly

That you don't love me.
Hey! I can hear very clearly, the
Things you're not saying;
But I've been watching you,
Watching you all the time,
And I've never felt.
That you care about me.
