Latin Lyrics by: Thomas Pflanz
English Lyrics by: Maggie Reilly

Fides Tua Te Salvam Fecit
Per Fidem Operationis Dei
O Sola Scriptura, O Sola Gratia
O Sola Fide

Arbor Decora Et Fulgida
O Ornata Regis Purpura
Credo, Quia Absurdum
Veritatem Dies Aperit

Ego Fui Sola In Silva
Et Dilexi Loca Secreta
Liber Vitae Caram Te
Vita Per Fidem

Ego Fui Sola In Silva
Et Dilexi Loca Secreta
Liber Vitae Caram Te
Vita Per Fidem

Till the sun never rises
The skies turn to grey
Till the earth stops revolving
All light fades away
Till the planets stop spinning
In the darkness above
I will treasure each moment
I am with you my love
Till the moment comes when time stands still.

Repeat chorus

Till the moon never beams
But in the sky tries to hide
Till the oceans and rivers
Fail to turn with the tide
Till my heart stops its beating

Till the stars burn away
I will always be with you
Till the end of all days
In that moment when the world is still.

Till the raindrops stop falling
And the wind never blows
Till the mountains all tumble
To the seas far below
Till the stars lose their sparkle
And the ice melts away
I will love you forever
I will love you always
In that moment when the world is still.

And the skies turn to grey
Till the earth stops revolving
I will treasure each moment
I am with you my love.

Till the raindrops stop falling
The wind never blows
I will love you forever
I will love you always
Till the moment when the skies no longer blue
Until then you know I'll still believe in you.
