But I'm coolin', yes, I'm coolin', no foolin', I'm coolin' on you

Your every wish was my command
The momment that you took my hand
My fate was to obey
The momment that you made the date

Well now you promised to be true
And so I took my eyes off you
And then the momment that my back was turned
I saw Nero fiddling while Rome burned

Don't apologize, don't you flash those eyes
Don't you say those sweet things to me
Don't you dare explain, you're driving me in sane
Don't come any closer, you're gonna get a no, no, no, no, no sir

Since all your vows just proved untrue
The other foot now wears the shoe
Here's your farewell and there's the door
I just won't play these games no more
